

InterFaith — Run for a United World Saturday, 27 May 2017

Ordained ministers and representatives of the world religions from several countries are invited to run together for peace in the ING Night Marathon Luxembourg under the motto „InterFaith – Run for a United World “ and to create an interreligious network.

Patronage

The patrons for this interreligious event are His Holiness, the 14 Dalai Lama and the Archbishop of Luxembourg, Jean Claude Hollerich. Both encourage us in our endeavour to work for peace and understanding among the World religions.

Distances (free choice)

- Marathon
- Half marathon
- Team run (4 legs between 8.5 und 13.3 km)

The course leads through Luxembourg, a small, but beautiful capital in the heart of Europe with many sights and places of interest. Impressive buildings in the old part of the city, amongst them the famous Cathedral, stand in contrast to the modern architecture on the Kirchberg, where many European Institutions and banks are located.

For registrations received on time we offer free of charge:

- Free room and board
- Guided city tour
- InterFaith Lasagne Party
- InterFaith technical T-Shirt

Running for a good cause

In 2017 we support again an educational project of the Global Ethic Foundation. We would like to ask participants to collect donations in advance.

Great success in past years

The InterFaith commune comprises already more than 50 runners representing 5 religions and 10 countries.

The eldest participant by far was Fauja Singh from England (now aged 105).

The title of “fastest InterFaith runner “ is still held by Matthias Vosseler from Stuttgart who ran the 42.195 km in 02:48:29 in 2014 .

Taking part is everything !

Distances for all fitness levels !
Participate actively in the inter-religious dialogue.

Some training runs are necessary - the team run should be run rather than walked.

- You have always wanted to take part in a night marathon?
- You want to form interreligious contacts?
- You don't yet know Luxembourg and its people?
- You would like to be active and help people at the same time?

Don't hesitate to register and pass on the message! The ING Night Marathon Luxembourg will be sold out quickly.

We are looking forward to meeting you!
